

PRESS RELEASE

CITY OF HUGHSON

June 4, 2007

Effective June 1, 2007 Thomas Clark was appointed Planning and Building Director for the City of Hughson. Thom has been the interim Director since the departure of the previous Director Barry Siebe.

Mr. Clark was first employed by the City of Hughson in January 2007 as the Parks and Recreation Manager and assumed the position of interim Planning and Building Director in May 2007. City Manager, Joseph Donabed, made the announcement on Monday, June 4, 2007 and said "I have a lot of confidence in Thom's ability to lead the Department based upon his many years in local government and by personal observation".

In his new role, Mr. Clark will be responsible for Planning, Building, Redevelopment and Housing. In addition the Parks and Recreation Division will also report to him. Mr. Clark was pleased with the new assignment saying "I am confident that my years of experience in small cities will enable me to bring the Planning and Building Department up to a new level of expertise and trust".
