Hughson Prepares for the Holiday Season Halloween and Thanksgiving Events First Up

On October 31, 2016, the City of Hughson and its local partners, will kick off the winter holiday season at Lebright Fields (corner of Fox Road and Charles Avenue) with the 4th Annual Halloween Trunk or Tent and Treat event (5pm-8pm). Local organizations will decorate trunks and tents at the park and pass out candy and other treats to children of all ages. Local DJ Jose Alfaro will set the tone with music for the occasion. City Officials (City Hall, Police and Fire) will bring around the popular City Caravan with lights and sirens and, in addition to Lebright Fields, make stops at a local church hosting harvest gatherings (Hughson Full Gospel Assembly of God/2007 5th Street and Hughson Christian School/1519 Tully Road). Local dignitaries will present awards to the best decorated trunks and tents before making way for the events "flash mob" choreographed by the local youth football program. On November 19, 2016, the Hughson Senior Center (2307 4th Street) will be the venue for the Hughson Community Thanksgiving Dinner. Local faith based organizations, in partnership with local public agencies, nonprofit organizations and volunteers prepare traditional meals for families in need and served from 2:00pm-4:30pm. Take home and pick up delivery is also available upon request. For more information, contact 209.851.6225.

Also that weekend in November (19 and 20, 9am-4pm), the 20th Century Club of Hughson will hold its Arts and Crafts Fair at Hughson High School (7419 East Whitmore Avenue). The 20th Century Club is a community service organization, established in 1936, of local women willing to donate their time and efforts to fundraise for community service enrichment that promote, support and contribute to the well-being of local youth. The annual event, celebrating its 41st anniversary, is widely popular amongst vendors and provides local residents and visitors a wide selection of items for purchase to kick-off the holiday season.
